

13 January 1976

French Paper Publishes Names Of 'CIA Agents'

PARIS (UPI) — The extreme left-wing newspaper Liberation today published the names of 32 persons it claims are members of the CIA operating in France.

The paper said the list was compiled after a long investigation and with the cooperation of the American magazine Counter-Spy, which last year published the names of alleged CIA bureau chiefs throughout the world.

"We don't wish anyone to meet death," Liberation said in reference to the slaying last month of Richard Welch, the CIA station chief in Athens. Welch was shot to death by three gunmen after Counter-Spy and an Athens newspaper named him as a CIA chief.

The Paris paper in many cases also gave the alleged agents' addresses, post office boxes or telephone numbers. It said it will soon publish more names of alleged CIA spies.